

JOB SEARCH RESOURCES

1.) Beyond- www.beyond.com

Beyond.com is the “largest network of niche career communities.” It essentially hooks together different organizations, which makes it easy to find leads in your community.

2.) Career Builder- www.careerbuilder.com/

CareerBuilder.com is a leader in the Internet job awareness business in the US Marketplace. Career builder helps job seekers connect with employers.

3.) Careers in the Military- www.careersinthemilitary.com

Explore all of the career opportunities in the Military. There are many job opportunities that you may not have thought about.

4.) College Recruiter- www.collegerecruiter.com

Collegerecruiter.com provides information for college students, grads, and recent graduates who are seeking employment, continuing education and business opportunities. This provides many entry-level positions.

5.) Hound- www.hound.com

Hounds search engine shows jobs from employer web sites only. This cuts out duplicate listings and shows opportunities that are not posted on other job boards.

6.) Indeed- www.indeed.com

Indeed lists major job web sites, company Web sites, associations, and other online courses. It searches high and low for jobs in your field of interest. Its simplicity and ease of use are its best features.

7.) Jobdoggy- www.jobdoggy.com

Start your search for teen and student jobs. Jobdoggy.com is the best job board that will connect teen and student job seekers with entry-level jobs, part-time positions, seasonal jobs, and summer jobs.

8.) LinkedIn- www.linkedin.com

Best known for being a social network for professionals. LinkedIn also has thorough job listings, some of which are exclusive to LinkedIn.

9.) Minnesota Workforce Center- www.mnwfc.org

Minnesota Workforce Centers (WFC's) provide the tools, resources and services needed for job search, career planning, and training needs.

10.) Monster- www.monster.com

Monster has grown into the largest job search site on the Internet, and serves just about every community across the world.

11.) Occupational Outlook Handbook- www.bls.gov/oco

The Occupational Outlook Handbook is a nationally recognized source of career information, designed to provide valuable assistance to individuals making decisions about their future work lives. Revised every two years, the Handbook describes what workers do on the job, working conditions, the training and education needed, earnings, and expected job prospects in a wide range of occupations.

12.) Teens 4 Hire- www.teens4hire.org

Teens4hire.org is the #1 online career and recruitment site for U.S teens seeking work.

13.) USA Jobs- www.usajobs.gov/

USA Jobs is a central location for all civilian jobs within the federal government. The U.S. Federal government has its own giant online job database that you can search under whatever industry or discipline you're interested in.

14.) Yahoo Hotjobs- www.hotjobs.yahoo.com

Hotjobs is a powerful job search engine that includes many thousands of listings from all throughout the world.